

Wandyr Version History

Version 1.2 - January 17, 2026

Major Changes

Starting a Game

- Section 4: Changed from "Select a Rumor" to "Select a Rumor or Journey" to allow players to choose between following rumors or embarking on journeys to far-away locations.

Rumors

- Updated the Rumors section to clarify that the Guide should provide "three rumors or far-away locations" instead of just rumors.

Experience

- Completing Rumors: Clarified that you earn 1-6 XP after following your selected rumor to its full conclusion.
- Journeys: Added new section explaining that a Journey is a rumor framed as an expedition—traveling to a far-away place with unknowns along the way. The destination might be a rumor site or a Location.
- Spending XP: Added clarification that "You can only spend XP in camp."
- Known Spells: Renamed the "Spell" advancement to "Known Spells" for clarity.

Alignment

- Updated examples to show "Fighter" alignment first, then "Honor" alignment, with clearer formatting.

Game Flow

- Complete Rewrite: Replaced the Turn Clock system with a simpler, more flexible approach:
 - Turns: A "Turn" is 10 minutes—time to search a room, loot a body, move the group along, etc.
 - Combat Rounds: A "Round" is 10 seconds—time for one action.
 - Adventures: Adventures are trouble that finds you. The Guide asks the Oracle if you avoid adventures:
 - When you enter a location
 - When you do something risky (cast magic, make noise, etc.)

- Otherwise, every 15 minutes of real-world play time
- The Oracle target depends on the situation—6 (safe) for safe areas, up to 12+ for a monster's lair.

Fighting

- Attack: Added "Using two hands is +2" to damage.
- At the Same Time: Simplified and clarified the right of way rules:
 - A ready weapon beats an unready one.
 - Among ready weapons: melee beats missiles; when approaching, better reach (by item slots) wins; in close quarters (under 10 feet per person), smaller wins.
 - The need to move or draw can break ties.
 - When in doubt, it's simultaneous.

Invocations

- An Answer?: Expanded to provide more guidance on how the Guide determines what happens:
 - The Guide determines what happens next, following existing Lore, your Alignment with the being, context, and asking the Oracle various questions.
 - The Guide sets an equivalent spell level for the effect up to the Hearts lost, and can limit Hearts lost for simple requests.

The Muster

- Baggage: Added a helpful note: "Consider picking up something you find along the way—a shield, a torch, a stout branch."
